Introductory Notes

1. This yearbook contains mainly important official statistics and survey data produced by Ministry of Economic Affairs and its subordinate agencies, and is annexed with a number of tables showing some major economic indicators derived from other important economic and financial data for the convenience of reference by readers.
2. Where duration is referred to as the “year”, it means the calendar year that covers a period from January 1 to December 31. Where duration is referred to as the “FY”, it means the fiscal year that covers a period from July 1 of last year to June 30 of this year. In line with the amendments to the Budget Law announced and promulgated on October 29, 1998, according to Article 12 of the new Budget Law, the governmental fiscal year has been changed from being based on a July system (i.e., beginning on July 1 of each year and ending on June 30 of the following year) to being based on the calendar year (i.e., January 1 to December 31 of each year). FY2000 is from July 1, 1999 to December 31, 2000 includes this 18- month period.
3. The metrical system of measurement is used in this publication unless otherwise indicated. The value or amount is denominated by the New Taiwan Dollar unless the U.S. Dollar is otherwise stated.
4. Figures are not added up to the grand total due to rounding up.
5. The following symbols used in this yearbook are defined as follows:

— : none

0 : less than a half unit

p : preliminary figure

r : revised

annual change rate : change rate with respect to the same period in previous year
6. Explanatory notes and sources of data are given at the bottom of each table.
